CV

Bio/Exhibition History

Ruth Marshall was born and raised in Melbourne, Australia. She studied for a BA in sculpture and printmaking at Phillip Institute of Technology, where diversity and independence of study was encouraged. Two years after completion Marshall was awarded the Anne & Gordon Samstag International Visual Arts Scholarship, a generous sponsor in promoting overseas education of Australian visual art students. In 1993, Marshall began a Masters degree in sculpture at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn.

Marshall was the very first artist to formally be asked to Dam, Stuhltrager Gallery, back in the early days of 2002.
