

DAM , STUHLTRAGER GALLERY CALL FOR ENTRIES

Currently accepting submissions for

“AU COURANT”

A survey of the newest in Contemporary Art
Curated by Leah Stuhltrager and Jacqueline Friscia

Curators of “AU COURANT” are seeking works in all mediums that push boundaries and blaze new frontiers in Contemporary Art. Work submitted must have been created after January 2007.

THE TIME IS NOW.

Deadline for submissions: March 31, 2008

About the CALL FOR ENTRIES:

Dam, Stuhltrager rarely holds CALL FOR ENTRIES...

But has a glowing success record when it does.

In the gallery's ten year history, there's been only two CALL FOR ENTRIES. The first was “GRITTY” in 2004. It was a success with critics. The second, “SHOOT” in 2005, was open only to film. After screening to over 1000 viewers in three days, “SHOOT” traveled to Madrid where it represented American film at the Circulo de Bellas Artes. “SHOOT” garnered rave reviews both in New York and in Spain.

About the GALLERY & CURATORS:

Founded in 1998, Dam, Stuhltrager is a contemporary art gallery in Williamsburg, Brooklyn. The gallery is known as an incubus of emerging talent and for groundbreaking exhibitions that incorporate technology or utilize mediums in a new, fresh way. In response to their innovative artists, Dam, Stuhltrager has been asked to provide large public installations in some of the most visible venues and events throughout the world. Since 2006, the gallery has presented public in Miami, Madrid, Lincoln Center/NY, Coachella/LA, Basel and Turkey. In 2008, the gallery was asked to present contemporary new media in Russia.

Leah Stuhltrager and Jacqueline Friscia are both on the curatorial team at Dam, Stuhltrager.
